New destination in Manasagangothri

Mahatma's Sculptures at Gandhi Bhavan

Mysuru, Nov.6 (MTY&NNN)- Higher Education and District Minister G.T. Devegowda (GTD) dedicated nine statues of Mahatma Gandhi along with other people installed at the five-acre Gandhi Bhavan in Manasagangothri to city here this morning.

The dedication function of the cement sculptures on Gandhiji was jointly organised by Kannada and Culture Department, Karnataka Shilpakala Academy, Rangayana and Centre for Gandhian Studies, Gandhi Bhavan, University of Mysore.

GTD, who was also savouring the victory of his party in a few of the constituencies after the by-polls results were announced, was all in awe of the inspiring works done by 34 sculptors at the workshop in just 15 days.

There are many firsts that has been created in the Sculpture Workshop led by Workshop Director K.K. Narayan Rao which has not been done anywhere in the country or in the world. This includes the world's tallest statue of Bapu with a young girl, Gandhiji-Kasturba and Mahatma-Tagore sitting together. As the statues are made out of cement, they will be cured with water for about three months and then silver colour paint will be uniformly applied to all of them.

DC gives green signal for widening of Irwin Road

Demolition of buildings to start by December end

Mysuru, Nov.6 (RK&SR)- It is official now, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) will finally take up the much-awaited road-widening and other beautification works of Irwin Road, one of the oldest streets of the city soon.

It may be recalled various organisations had waged a long battle for the development of this narrow road which had been causing traffic snarls daily.

Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar has given the green signal for road-widening by 60 ft. (18 meters), beautification of the 850 meters stretch from Nehru Circle (Central Post Office) till Government Ayurveda College Circle.

About 76 of the 84 owners of various buildings had agreed for the demolition of their properties to facilitate road-widening and the MCC officials are continuing their efforts to convince the other property owners to fall in line.

Irwin Road will be widened by 60 feet after razing down existing buildings on either side and the MCC would purchase the available land for road-widening from the land owners. The Govt., which has offered Rs.13,075 per sq. ft. to the owners, has set aside Rs.33 crore as compensation to land owners.

The Government had released Rs.29.75 crore to be distributed among identified property owners.

MCC has marked the boundary and is ready to take up the road-widening works after settling full compensation amount of the property owners. The present market value of the land on Irwin road ranges between Rs.7,000 and Rs.8,000 per sq. ft., according to valuators.

As the Government has already offered Rs.13,075 per sq. ft., many property owners have agreed for the same and most of the property owners have voluntarily come forward to get their properties demolished to facilitate the road-widening work. Existing buildings would be demolished by 10 to 30 feet.

By-polls: JD(S)-Congress coalition wins four seats, BJP one

Shivarame Gowda (JD-S) Mandya LS

Anitha Kumaraswamy (JD-S) Ramanagara Assembly

V.S. Ugrappa (Cong.) Ballari LS

Anand Nyamagouda (Cong.) Jamkhandi Assembly

Raghavendra (BJP) Shivamogga LS

Bengaluru, Nov.6 (DM)- In a huge boost on Deepavali Day to JD(S)-Congress coalition Government in the State, the ruling coalition candidates won four seats while the Opposition BJP managed to bag just one seat, in the by-polls held to three Lok Sabha (LS) and two Assembly Constituencies on Nov.3, counting for which was held today.

Even though the results, numerically, will make no difference to the Government, the by-poll was seen as a test for coalition partners, which fielded consensus candidates. While JD(S)-Congress secured a thumping victory in Ballari (ST) and Mandya LS and Jamakhandi and Ramanagara Assembly, BJP managed to retain the prestigious Shivamogga LS seat.

Mutually disrespectful

The multitude of issues of the nation's continued sovereignty and all round progress year-on-year seem to be getting stumped by wide media coverage of elections and by-elections taking place across the country keeping the staff of Election Commission of India busy, obliged to routinely follow the events, kick-starting their sequence by announcing the dates for polling and concluding by declaring the names of contestants securing their perch on the victory stand. The land's people, particularly the sections in the man-in-the-street category, don't appear to be either aware or concerned about the resources of time, money and materials being virtually splurged for electing the worthies. Saying that the tamasha as it were costs a bomb to the nation is grossly an understatement. The scale of resources consumed for sustaining the democratic image is rising year after year with no thought on the part of the top brass in successive governments to keep the poll expenses of the State in check.

Exercising the right to vote for electing representatives of people vested with the onerous task of law-making is being projected as a sacred duty by public speakers from various platforms. Even the contestants in the polls make it a point to voice the sentiment of sacredness and duty. The message therein has gained in value and importance with the newly introduced NOTA (None Of The Above) option, virtually reminding the contestants about their unedifying profile.

The part played by money and muscle power in the polls to the elected bodies in the ambit of democracy primarily for governance has engulfed even elections of Colleges and Universities over years giving an early taste of the morphed meaning of politics as an enterprise of sowing wind and reaping whirlwind as it were for turning cash spent in the polls into wealth of enormous proportions about which people are informed by media with reports of the money worth of the contestants in the polls. Choice of contestants for the poll and seeking votes on caste basis in this avowedly casteless society is a flourishing trade in which the electorate is the valued partner, unwittingly or otherwise.

The ongoing mutual exchange of various kinds of uncivil conduct of the vote-seekers in the State, marked by brazen disrespect and derogatory remarks seems to be treated as free entertainment by the people at large, prompting one to visualise the scenario as demise of democracy.

NOT INDIAN CULTURE: Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has taken it upon himself to offer Congress President Rahul Gandhi some lessons in Indian culture. Recently, after a day of campaigning, Rahul Gandhi headed to a popular hangout in Indore, 56 Dukan, for an ice-cream. Party leader Kamal Nath was also with him. As Gandhi was handed his cup of the dessert, he spotted a boy looking at him eagerly. "Ice-cream logey?" (want an ice-cream?) he asked the boy, who was only too happy to oblige. Thereafter, Gandhi turned to Kamal Nath, Madhya Pradesh Congress Chief, and said, "Kamal, ice-cream bahut achhi hai, tum bhi khao (Kamal, the ice-cream is really nice, you should have one too)." The next thing you know Chouhan is outraged: "Kamal Nath has worked with his father Rajiv Gandhi. Is this Indian culture to address a man of 70-75 years by his first name," he asked, after being told of the ice-cream episode.

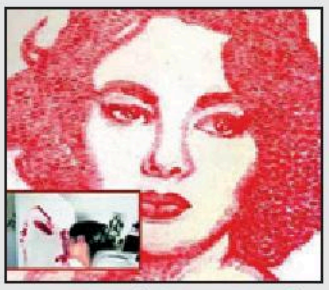
25-year friendship between a diver and a fish

Chiba Prefecture: Two very unlikely friends – local diver Hiroyuki Arakawa and an Asian sheepshead wrasse by the name of Yoriko have been regularly meeting at Tateyama Bay, in Japan's Chiba Prefecture since 25 years.

Arakawa has been looking after an underwater Shinto shrine located in Tateyama Bay for over a quarter of a century, also acting as a guide for tourist who want to visit it. During that time, he has became unusually close with a giant friendly fish which comes to greet him whenever he calls. All he has to do is call – by knocking with a hammer on a piece of metal – and the fish shows up. Hiroyuki has even named the fish Yoriko.

Yoriko shows up near the Shinto shrine and sometimes even poses for the camera. Their relationship has become a tourist attraction in itself, with people asking for diving sessions just to see the two unlikely friends bonding and playing.

Artist's kisses are literally a work of art



Toronto: Alexis Fraser, also known as Lipstick Lex of Tronto, is giving the phrase "makeup artist" a whole new meaning. She creates incredibly detailed portraits by kissing the canvas and leaving lipstick prints in just the right places.

Fraser specializes in oil painting, but has also mastered a unique art form that she calls "kiss print pointilism", which has her applying lipstick to her lips and repeatedly kissing the canvas until the desired image is formed. For the finer details, she draws with the lipstick directly onto the canvas, but most of the work is definitely done by her lips.

Small scale portraits of celebrities like Frank Sinatra or Sophia Loren usually take a few hours to complete. For example, in 2014, she made a beautiful portrait of Marylin Monroe, for which she kissed the canvas over four days and used two tubes of lipstick.

More on Sir MV and University of Mysore

Sir,

It has been mentioned in the article "Mysuru Memories — Rajamantra Praveena Kulapati H.V.Nanjundaiah" (SOM dated Oct. 22) that the initial steps with regard to the birth of Mysore University were taken by the Maharaja Nalwadi Krishna Raja Wadiyar, his mother Kempa Nanjammani Vani Vilasa and Dewan Sir M. Visvesvaraya in 1913-14. In order to set the record straight it needs to be pointed out that it was solely due to the efforts of Sir M. Visvesvaraya that the establishment of the University of Mysore became a reality.

In his book on Bharat Ratna Sir M.Visvesvaraya published by Select Book in 2013, H.S. Sreenath has devoted a whole chapter describing the efforts made by Sir MV in this regard.

The establishment of a University at Mysore could be counted among the major achievements of Visvesvaraya as Dewan of Mysore. Visvesvaraya thought of a University for Mysore the day he became the Chief Engineer of Mysore. Madras University was strongly opposed to the establishment of Mysore University.

However, it required permission from the Government of India. On 16th July 1915, Visvesvaraya attended a meeting with the representatives of the Government of India at Simla and submitted a detailed note explaining the reasons for a separate University for Mysore. The Government of India was fully convinced of the feasibility of the scheme and gave its consent. The University of Mysore came into being on 1st July, 1916.

On his return to Mysore, Visvesvaraya submitted a detailed note to His Highness the Maharaja through Sir Mirza Ismail, who was his Private Secretary. Mirza Ismail later conveyed the appreciation of the Maharaja to Visvesvaraya in the following words:

"His Highness has read with much interest the file, the notes of your interviews at Simla and desires me to return it to you with his thanks."

JSS Hospital too empanelled for Arogya Karnataka Scheme

In the news item titled "Arogya Karnataka rolls out in Mysuru district" (Star of Mysore dated Oct. 28), the name of JSS Hospital was inadvertently omitted in the list of leading private hospitals to offer healthcare services to patients in and around Mysuru.

JSS Hospital too is empanelled to provide services to all government scheme beneficiaries under schemes like Yeshasvini, Vajpayee, Rajiv Arogya Bhagya and Mukhya Mantrigala Santhwana which are now integrated as Arogya Karnataka Scheme.

JSS Hospital falls under the empanelled hospital as service provider for Arogya Karnataka Scheme for complex secondary, tertiary and emergency care under the scheme initiated by Government of Karnataka.

Earlier, when the scheme was not integrated JSS Hospital stood 1st in ranking as care provider for Yeshasvini and one of the top 10 Hospitals to provide care under all other government schemes. —Ed

Flood Fury: More than 40 percent of coffee lost

Bengaluru, Nov.6 (UNI)- Karnataka Planters' Association (KPA) Chairman H.T. Pramod has said that there will be a shortfall of coffee production to the extent of 30 to 40 per cent in the State due to natural calamity in Karnataka and Kerala which are the main coffee-growing States in the country.

He said that though the Coffee Board had estimated the production at 3,16,000 tonnes, an increase of 4,000 tonnes against 2016-17, the KPA believes that the 2018-19 crop is expected to decline by 30 per cent to 40 per cent due to heavy rain and landslides witnessed in Kodagu, Hassan and Chikkamagalur districts of Karnataka.

"The devastation is deep in Kodagu, where the rainfall erased 116-year-old record in August and frequent landslides due to flood washed away thousands of hectares of Coffee estates," he said. KPA is the apex plantation decision-making body in the State.

Pramod said that coffee plantations were damaged and this had affected plant growth, fruit setting and there were high incidents of stem and berry borer. The record rainfall has resulted in fruit drop and root rot.

Alleging that the Coffee Board has not permitted import of high-variety of seeds, Pramod added that coffee growing countries like Brazil, Colombia and Vietnam have high productivity in coffee and have come out with high-yielding varieties which are disease and drought-resistant.

"The Coffee Board is neither releasing new high-yielding and disease-resistant Arabica and Robusta varieties nor is it allowing planters to import seeds of high-yielding variety," he said and urged the Union Government to declare the situation prevailing as national disaster as it may take 10 to 15 years to overcome.

He sought interest waiver on loans for heavy loss growers have incurred after floods. "Together with the Coffee Board, we have made a representation before the Ministry of Commerce asking for reduction of interest rates on all crop loans," he said.

Coffee growers sought interest waiver on loans up to Rs.10 lakh to zero percent, up to Rs. 25 lakh to 3 percent per annum and above Rs.25 lakh to 6 percent per annum. KPA has also urged the Centre to declare a moratorium period of one year against recovery of all kinds of loans obtained by affected coffee growers.

"Most of the plantations have to be replanted and during the period, most of the growers will suffer huge losses. It is now important for the Government to come to the rescue of the coffee industry," Pramod said.

MGP demands setting up of Ward Committees

Mysuru, Nov.6 - Ever since the adaption of 74th amendment to the Constitution in 1992, otherwise known as 'Nagarapalika Act,' the Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) has been urging from time to time every new Commissioner of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) to implement the Constitutional requirement of forming Ward Committees.

It was during the time of P. Manivannan as the MCC Commissioner that finally some serious efforts were made to form Ward Committees. However, because of lack of interest on the part of Mysureans it was not a successful attempt. Later, none of the Commissioners nor any Corporators or other elected representatives have made effort to form Ward Committees.

In a letter to the MCC Commissioner, the MGP has demanded the constitution of Ward Committees, Area Sabhas and conduct of monthly Ward Committee meetings in the city.

"It is regrettable that even 25 years after the passage of the Nagarapalika Act, Ward Committees have not been constituted in the City of Mysuru which has 65 Wards, and Area Sabhas have not been notified as per KMC (Amendment) Act of 2011, and Area Sabha Representatives have not been nominated. These gross acts of omission and negligence are violations of the Nagarapalika Act and the KMC (Amendment) Act of 2011," it has stated.

"Like Gram Sabhas in rural areas, Ward Committees are an attempt on the part of India's Parliament to promote involvement of people in self-government in urban areas. Ward Committees will be able to plan, monitor and audit all work in the Ward. Such active involvement can reduce or completely eliminate corruption which is rampant today. No work by any contractor is done today without paying customary 'commission'. This inconvenient truth is known to everyone. But no one has any interest to challenge this," said Bhamy V. Shenoy, one of the members of MGP.

If Mysureans in large numbers show interest then this can become a reality. Ward Committees can work to solve local water problems, keep the neighbourhood clean, green the areas by promoting planting of tree saplings, maintain the roads by filling potholes, etc. They can also improve tax collection in the MCC Wards.

In short, Ward Committees can contribute to the upkeep of their respective Wards and through that make Mysuru an attractive city and prevent it from going the way of Bengaluru, said MGP Working President S. Sobana.

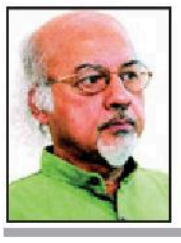
Burden of being always right



Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

Finance Minister Arun Jaitley has the advantage of knowing that he is always right. Reserve Bank Governor Urjit Patel has taken his own time to learn that. Which is Patel's problem. He started out as Jaitley's handpicked man to replace Raghuram Rajan who simply had to go as Arvind Panagariya had to go and Arvind Subramaniam had to go. The international celebrity that he was, Rajan thought he knew banking and finance a tad better than the Finance Minister whose foundation, after all, was in law. But he forgot that the Minister was a politician, and politicians are wizards in all subjects from finance to rocket science.

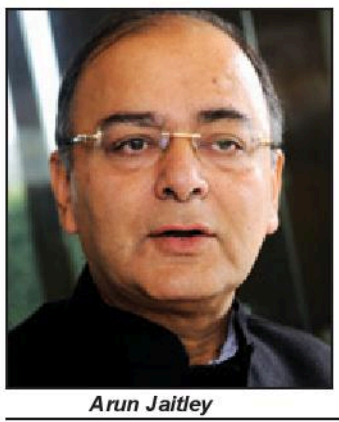
Urjit Patel functioned obediently in the early days. When the country reeled under the impact of the half-baked, hastily implemented demonetisation two years ago, Patel became the target of attack by harassed citizens. The attacks grew harsher as ATMs failed as did RBI guidelines to restore some order. Patel bore the brunt of people's wrath. The Reserve Bank was called the Reverse Bank.

The first sign of the RBI Governor trying to regain his reputation was the bank's annual report a few months ago which showed that 99.3 percent of the banned currency had returned, thus putting an official stamp on the failure of demonetisation. Patel took another bold step when he asked banks to restructure their non-performing assets or initiate insolvency proceedings against borrowers, a move that could embarrass the Government which has distinguished borrowers among its friends. The RBI has also been taking a stand against banks that have been in the news for the wrong reasons though its hands seem to be tied in some cases (ICICI, for example).

The question now is not whether the RBI Governor has caused displeasure in the Finance Ministry, but how deep-going is the displeasure. Disagreements had fanned speculation about the Ministry imposing a section of the RBI Act that would make the Bank subservient to the Government. Adding fuel to the fire was a speech by RBI Deputy Governor Viral Acharya that went viral. He warned: "Governments that do not respect central bank independence will sooner or later incur the wrath of financial markets and ignite economic fire." Even the General Secretary of the Reserve Bank Employees' Association indicated the way the wind was blowing inside the venerable institution when he said there must have been pressing reasons for Acharya to say what he said publicly.

The words of the Finance Minister, however, leave no scope for debate: The RBI is at fault and has been at fault for a long time. When the previous Congress-led Government allowed indiscriminate lending by banks, he said, the RBI failed to check it. "It was a regulator but it kept pushing the truth below the carpet," as Jaitley put it.

Jaitley has two powerful qualities that lend strength to his assertions: His conviction and his concern with only the facts he mentions; other facts do not exist or are a political conspiracy. A parliamentary committee reported in August that non-performing assets went up by Rs. 6.2 lakh crore between March 2015 and March 2016, forcing the Government to provide public sector banks with Rs. 5.1 lakh crore. Is that truth above or below the carpet?



Arun Jaitley

Urjit Patel

What happened under the BJP Government happened under the Congress Government as well, showing the non-alignment of the powerful. Raghuram Rajan said in his 2017 book that large numbers of bad loans originated in 2006-2008 when too many of them "were made to well-connected promoters who have a history of defaulting on their loans." The lesson which will not surprise citizens is that it doesn't matter who governs, plundering will go on.

Jaitley doesn't like anyone to disagree with him. So he let it be known that he wanted the RBI under stronger Government control. Clashes between the political order and the central bank are a familiar thing the world over. But always wisdom has prevailed, governments leaving the central banks effectively autonomous. This time also wisdom must prevail.

To achieve that end, it will be helpful if Jaitley shows a wee bit more respect to people with different views, not unusual in a democracy. Assertions by an RBI Governor need not necessarily be seen as anti-democratic. A former BJP Finance Minister need not be dismissed as "a job applicant at 80." The leader of the main opposition party need not be called a "clown prince." Arun Jaitley is, of course, always right. But should it mean that all others are always wrong?

New destination in Manasagangothri

Mahatma's Sculptures

Mysuru, Nov.6 (NNN) - It is the 150th birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation that is being celebrated all over the country. If ever there is a befitting tribute being paid to the Mahatma, one only has to drive to the new address in town but in the same old beautiful Manasagangothri campus that will invariably make their heads turn as one drives on Bogadi Road. The statue of Kuvempu at the entrance and the centenary clock tower that were the major attractions will almost become passé now.

After passing through the majestic gates of Manasagangothri, the eyes turn automatically to the left to the hitherto hidden Gandhi Bhavan, for there is the 'Gyarah Murti' sculpture, also called the Dandi March statue with Gandhiji leading ten common people (a similar statue made out of brass is installed at the Freedom Fighters Park in Subbarayanekere).

Next to that is Gandhiji playing with a child and the third one is the famous sitting posture of Gandhiji and Rabindranath Tagore. All these three statues are placed right at the entrance.

Then as one takes a left turn and enters the Gandhi Bhavan, the giant sculpture of Gandhiji spinning the Charka welcomes the visitors. To the left are a few more of the sculptures that include a boy leading Gandhi with his walking stick, Gandhiji and Kasturba in sitting posture, the world's tallest statue of the Mahatma looking down benignly into the eyes of a girl holding a dustpan (mora). Next there is the beautiful statue of Gandhiji with Manuben (great-grand niece of Mahatma Gandhi) to his right and Abha Chatterji (his adopted daughter) to his left. The sculptures of the girls are so bright with innocence writ large on their faces that it attracts everyone's attention. The one that also does not fail to attract the attention is the sculpture of Bapu in a meditative pose facing the entrance gate.

Nine statues, 27 figures

In all, there are nine statues and 27 figures spread over nearly two acres out of five acres in Gandhi Bhavan. "There are 34 sculptors out of whom 19 are senior and 15 Assistant sculptors who have worked on the 27 figures. In the 15-day workshop that began from Oct.22 and ended on Nov.5, the sculptors worked on cement material. A group of them would be involved in making a particular sculpture. For instance two or three would be working on Tagore and a few others on Gandhi. In the Gyarah Murti statue there are eleven figures including that of Gandhi and each group would sculpt on a particular figure. Thus we have nine statues of Gandhi as the central figure with other figures installed along with him which comes to a total of 27 figures and nine statues," explained Prof. M.S. Shekar, Director, Gandhi Bhavan, speaking to Star of Mysore, this morning.

"It is a remarkable piece of work that our sculptors have achieved. They have done these beautiful pieces of craftsmanship in just 15 days with each sculpture depicting the depths, feelings and thoughts of the Mahatma. It is also for the first time that the Karnataka Shilpa Academy has given material to sculpt the statues," said Karnataka Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi Vice-President Prof. G.B. Shivaraju.

The University of Mysore had sanctioned Rs.2 lakh for the hospitality expenses of the sculptors, who were all housed in the University Guest Houses in Gangothri, said Prof. Shekar.

A plaque with the inscription 'Seven Social Sins' both in Kannada and English, all to do with social and political conditions that the Mahatma spoke about, has been installed at the entrance between Gyarah Murti and Gandhi-Tagore statues. This plaque is presented by Prof. B.K. Shivanna.

Another plaque with the inscription 'India of My Dreams' which the Mahatma dreamt for the citizens of the country, presented by University of Mysore Alumni Association, has been installed near the bust of the Mahatma at the Gandhi Bhavan, which was inaugurated on Jan. 31, 1965 by Morarji Desai.

Tourism Minister storms out of Gandhiji's function

Mysuru, Nov.6 (MTY&NNN)- Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh reportedly stormed out of Gandhiji's Cement Sculpture dedication function in Manasagangothri today.

It is learnt, he was upset to see that none of the names or photographs of elected representatives were found in the special brochure titled 'Gandhiji Kurithu Cement Shilpagala Lokarpane Samarambha.'

On the contrary, there were names and photographs of bureaucrats, Gandhians, University officials and sculptors.

This omission upset him and he walked out, saying that when they want money to be sanctioned, they seek the help of the Ministers but they do not have the minimum courtesy of mentioning their names.

Interestingly, the Minister's name was also not there in the invitation while the names of G.T. Devegowda and L. Nagendra along with others were printed.

When Star of Mysore contacted the University officials for this lapse, one of them, on condition of anonymity, said that when S.R. Mahesh was invited for the function, he had expressed his inability to attend and hence his name was not printed.

MLA L. Nagendra, Kannada and Culture Department Director N.R. Vishukumar, Karnataka Shilpakala Academy Director-Sculptor R. Kalachar, Karnataka Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi President Dr. Wooday P. Krishna,

University of Mysore Vice-Chancellor Prof. Aisha M. Sherif, Registrar Prof. R. Rajanna, Freedom Fighter Dr. M.G. Krishnamurthy, Gandhians Lakshminarasimaiah, K.T. Veerappa, P. Mallesh, Nagarathnamma Javaregowda, Litterateur Kukkarahalli Basavaraju, Karnataka Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi Vice-President Prof. G. B. Shivaraju, University of Mysore Alumni Association President Dr. Vasanthkumar Thimkapura and others were present.

In Mandya, JD(S) candidate L.R. Shivaramegowda romped home defeating his nearest BJP rival Dr. Siddharamaiah by nearly 2.9 lakh votes, a record margin of victory. While Shivaramegowda secured 4,94,728 votes, BJP'S Dr. Siddharamaiah bagged 2,05,357 votes, while all other seven Independent candidates in the fray, forfeited their deposits.

Shivaramegowda managed to consolidate his margin right from the first round soon after the counting began at the Government Boys PU College here at 8 am and ultimately won by a record margin of 2.9 lakh votes, a feat unmatched so far in the Constituency.

In Ballari, V.S. Ugrappa of the Congress too scored a record margin of victory, defeating his nearest rival J. Shantha of the BJP by a huge margin of nearly 2.44 lakh votes. While Ugrappa secured 6,28,163 votes, BJP's Shantha managed only 3,84,892 votes, while the two other Independent candidates in the fray lost their deposits. With this victory, Ugrappa will be entering the Parliament for the first time, though the term is less than 6 months. The LS Polls is scheduled to take place in April-May 2019.

In Shivamogga, BJP candidate B.Y. Raghavendra, son of State BJP Chief B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY), managed to retain the seat for the party by defeating Madhu Bangarappa of the JD(S) by over 52,000 votes. While Raghavendra polled 5,43,306 votes, Madhu Bangarappa secured 4,91158 votes.

The by-election to the three LS seats was necessitated by the resignation of Yeddyurappa (BJP-Shivamogga), B. Sriramulu (BJP-Ballari) and C.S. Puttaraju (JD-S, Mandya) following their election to the Assembly in the May 2018 polls.

The by-poll results to the two Assembly segments sprung no surprise as the JD(S) candidate Anitha Kumaraswamy won from Ramanagara and Anand Nyamagouda of the Congress won from Jamkhandi (Bagalkot district) as expected.

Anitha Kumaraswamy, wife of Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy won by a record margin of nearly 1.10 lakh votes from Ramanagara.

Anitha defeated her nearest rival L. Chandrashekar of the BJP, who announced his retirement from the contest just two days before the Nov. 3 poll and backed the JD(S) candidate.

In Jamkhandi, Anand Nyamagouda scored a thumping win over his nearest rival Srikanth Kulkarni of the BJP by nearly 40,000 votes. While Anand polled 97,013 votes, Srikanth Kulkarni managed only 57,529 votes.

While the Ramanagara by-poll was necessitated due to the resignation of Chief Minister Kumaraswamy, who opted to retain the neighbouring Channapatna Constituency, after winning from both the seats in the May 2018 polls, the by-poll to Jamkhandi Assembly segment was due to the death of Congress MLA Siddu Nyamagouda, who died in a road mishap, just a few days after his election in the Assembly polls. While the Congress managed to make a deep dent into the BJP stronghold in Ballari, the BJP succeeded in retaining Shivamogga, which was represented by Yeddyurappa before his election to the State Assembly.

The by-polls to the three LS seats witnessed a tepid voter turnout, while the voter turnout for the Assembly Constituencies was much better, with Jamkhandi recording its highest polling percentage of 77.17.

The by-elections, especially for the Lok Sabha seats, began as a drab political exercise, but later turned out into a high stake battle for various leaders of the three political parties, including Chief Minister Kumaraswamy and former PM H.D. Deve Gowda of the JD(S), former CM Siddharamaiah and senior leader D.K. Shivakumar of the Congress and State BJP Chief Yeddyurappa and senior BJP leader B. Sriramulu. The prestigious Shivamogga LS seat was a battle between the sons of three former Chief Ministers — B.S. Yeddyurappa, S. Bangarappa (late) and J.H. Patel (late).

While BSY's son B.Y. Raghavendra contested on BJP ticket, Madhu Bangarappa entered the fray on a JD(S) ticket and Mahima Patel joined the fray as an Independent candidate. However, Raghavendra, managed to retain the seat in a battle of prestige, defeating Madhu Bangarappa of the JD(S) in a keen contest, while Mahima Patel fared badly and lost his deposit.

Widening of Irwin Road

MCC will distribute compensation cheque to the owners on the spot after the owners transfer their land by entering into an agreement and certified at the office of the Sub Registrar.

MCC Commissioner K. H. Jagadeesha said that the demolition of the buildings for road widening will be taken up by the end of December this year and added that road widening and Under Ground Drainage system works would begin simultaneously on this stretch.

The MCC Commissioner further said that the MCC required Rs. 5 crore for the development of this road and will use its own grants for the road beautification works after taking necessary approvals from the State Government. Though the MCC had planned to widen the road in 2016 and had marked the boundary, the process was delayed as there was stiff opposition from property owners and members of various organisations, he added.

Jagadeesha said "this apart, some portion of the Anjaneyaswamy Temple belonging to the Muzrai Department and a part of Central Library building will be demolished for road-widening."

If all goes well as planned, traffic congestion and frequent traffic jams on Irwin Road will come down giving a sigh of relief to motorists and those travelling on this road regularly.

MLA Ramdas launches
Swachhata Abhiyan at BEML Nagar

Mysuru, Nov.6 - Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Additional Commissioner G.M. Ravindra & Health Officer Dr. D.G. Nagaraj, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and members of various public organisations took part in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan at Ward 63, BEML Nagar in city on Sunday.

They swept various streets of BEML Nagar as part of the cleanliness drive that began with Ganapathi Temple. They also removed weeds on vacant plots.

Speaking on the occasion, Ramdas said that several Corporators in his Assembly segment have been successfully conducting Swachhata Abhiyan with the help of local organisations every Sunday between 6.30 am and 9.30 am. They are giving utmost preference to maintain cleanliness in parks besides keeping roads and other public utility places clean.

Instructions have been given to collect dried leaves and flowers at every park besides dumping them at the corner side of the park so that manure can be generated. He said that he would appeal to the MCC to depute more Pourakarmikas for largest Wards wherever there is a scarcity.

He also said, he has planned to develop his constituency as model one when it comes to waste segregation. A drive will be launched to sensitise residents on waste management at source, he added.

'Swachh Bharat Mission' will be a success only if casteist minds become clean'

Senior littérateur Dr. Siddalingaiah (third from left) is seen releasing the book 'Bayalu Bahirdese - Ondu Samajika Anishta,' authored by Malkundi Mahadevaswamy, at Rani Bahadur auditorium in Manasagangothri on Sunday as former Minister V. Sreenivasa Prasad, MLA A.H. Vishwanath and others look on.

Mysuru, Nov.6 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that 'Swachh Bharat Mission' is not only about cleaning roads and other places with broom sticks, former Minister and senior BJP leader V. Sreenivasa Prasad has said that the Mission will become a success in the true sense only if casteist mindset goes off in the society.

He was speaking at B. Basavalingappa Memorial Programme organised by V. Sreenivasa Prasad Fans Association at Rani Bahadur auditorium on Hunsur Road, Manasagangothri, on Sunday, during which writer Malkundi Mahadevaswamy's work titled 'Bayalu Bahirdese - Ondu Samajika Anishta' was also released.

Observing that Swacch Bharat Mission should not only be environment cleaning but also cleaning of casteist minds, Prasad maintained that B. Basavalingappa's campaigns for Dalit Rights had invoked self-respect among Dalit communities.

Pointing out that B. Basavalingappa, who was a tall Dalit leader in the sixties and seventies, had fought for Buddha, Basava and Dr. Ambedkar's ideals, he said that Basavalingappa always believed that equality can become a reality only when it is truly practiced.

Regretting that the Government is yet to fulfil the assurances given to MCC Pourakarmikas ahead of Dasara celebrations, Prasad maintained that he, as a Minister in the Siddharamaiah Government, had urged the CM to abolish the Contract System and thus come to rescue of thousands of Contract Pourakarmikas, who had no job security and statutory benefits.

Speaking after releasing writer Malkundi Mahadevaswamy's work 'Bayalu Bahirdese - Ondu Samajika Anishta,' senior littérateur Dr. Siddalingaiah said that Dalits should come out of superstitions.

Referring to a Ph.D thesis which shed light on why villagers at a remote village in Davanagere district were hesitant to build toilets, he said that the villagers had claimed that they were only following Lord Shiva who openly defecated in the village.

Stating in a lighter vein that toilets were centres of communal harmony, which are used by everyone irrespective of their caste and creed, he called upon the Dalit communities to shed superstitions and fight for equality.

MLA and JD(S) State President A.H. Vishwanath, Kuvempu Institute of Kannada Studies (KIKS) Director Dr. Neelagiri M. Talawar, writer Malkundi Mahadevaswamy, V. Sreenivasa Prasad Fans Association President P. Nandakumar, General Secretary D. Venkataraju and others were present during the programme.

Government to celebrate Tipu Jayanti at Ravindra Kalakshetra on Nov.10

BJP to stage State-wide stir on Nov.9

Senior BJP leader and MLA R. Ashok addressing press persons at a private hotel in Mysuru yesterday as State BJP Secretary M. Rajendra, Mandya BJP candidate Dr. Siddaramaiah, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath and others look on.

Bengaluru, Nov.6 (KMS&DM)- Even as the BJP is vehemently opposing the Tipu Jayanti celebration, the Government will be celebrating the Jayanti at Ravindra Kalakshetra here on Nov.10.

Dr. Parameshwara

Speaking to press persons here yesterday, Deputy Chief Minister Dr. G. Parameshwara, who is also the Home Minister, said that the Jayanti celebration will take place at Ravindra Kalashetra before 2 pm on Nov. 10.

Pointing out that the venue for the celebration was fixed after taking into consideration Law and Order and security issues, Dr. Parameshwara warned that action will be taken against those trying to disturb the celebration or cause violence.

He further said that the Government has directed all District Administrations of the State to allow Jayanti celebration only in halls and auditoriums, sans any posters, banners, flex boards etc.

He warned of stringent action against those who send provocative messages in social media and through other platforms.

State-wide stir by BJP

While the JD(S)-Congress Coalition Government is going ahead with Tipu Jayanti celebration, the Opposition BJP is all set to stage a State-wide stir across the State on Nov.9.

Announcing this during a press meet at a private hotel in Mysuru yesterday, senior BJP leader and MLA R. Ashok said that Tipu was anti-Kannada and the celebration of Tipu Jayanti was an insult to the people of the State.

Claiming that Tipu Sultan used to send messages and circulars in Persian language, Ashok alleged that the Coalition Government was celebrating Tipu Jayanti only for vote bank.

Maintaining that celebrating Tipu Jayanti was an insult to Chitradurga's Madakari Nayaka and Onake Obavva, Ashok expressed apprehension that organisations such as Karnataka Forum for Dignity (KFD) and Popular Front of India (PFI) may misuse the occasion to create violence in the State.

Warning that the Government has to take the blame for any untoward incidents that may take place during the celebration, the BJP leader said that protests will continue in some parts of the State on Nov.10, 11 and 12 too.

Challenging the Government to arrest BJP activists during the protests, Ashok reiterated that anti-national elements may misuse the occasion to create trouble in the State.

Honour people's sentiments, drop Tipu Jayanti celebrations: BSY

Meanwhile, State BJP President and Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly, B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY) has, in a press release, urged the State Government to drop its decision to celebrate Tipu Jayanti and not to stand on prestige or ego. "The people's sentiments and emotions against Tipu is strong and widespread. It is the duty of the Government to honour people's sentiments," BSY has stated.

Yeddyurappa

"Tipu Sultan was a controversial person on many counts. He was also a religious bigot. Historical records prove that he had ordered the massacre of thousands of Kodavas during his invasion of Malabar," the statement further added.

"Tipu had also ordered the execution of Mandayam Iyengars at the temple town of Melkote in Mandya on the day of Deepawali festival. The reason was that these Iyengars had supported the then Maharaja of Mysore and demanded that the Kingdom be given back.

"It is pertinent to mention that thousands of Kodavas staged protest demonstration in front of French Embassy in Delhi recently. They demanded an apology from the French Government for supporting Tipu in his war against natives and tribals," he said.

Taking strong exception to the statement made by Dy.CM Dr. G. Parameshwara that the Government will take action against those who oppose Tipu Jayanti celebrations, BSY said, "We have every right to oppose what is blatantly wrong decision and that which is against the people's wishes."

Stating that Tipu Jayanti celebration is a new-found strategy of the Congress party as a part of its politics of minority appeasement, BSY has said, "if the Government is so keen to honour eminent personalities from Muslim community, we have late Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam or War Hero Abdul Hamid."

"It is worthwhile to recall that Prime Minister Narendra Modi visited the family of Abdul Hamid who was martyred in 1965 war. Let the Karnataka Government emulate the Prime Minister," he said and reiterated that the Government should honour people's sentiments and drop its decision to celebrate Tipu Jayanti.

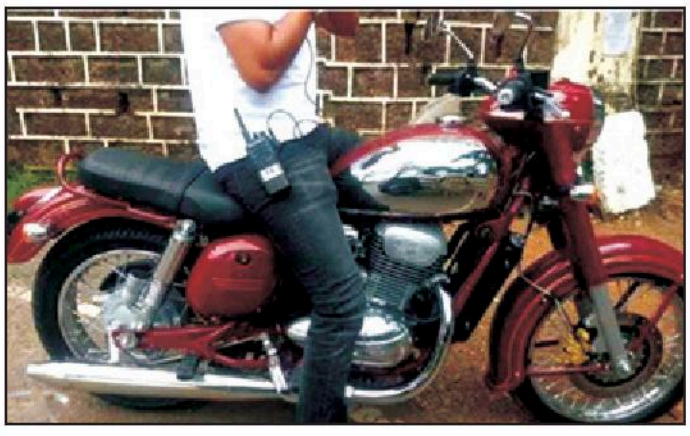
Jawa 300 cc bike to hit Indian market on Nov.15



New Delhi, Nov.6- Czech motorcycle brand Jawa is all set to make its comeback to the Indian market and the bike maker has earmarked Nov.15 this year as the launch date and the company will be showcasing its first motorcycle for the market at the special event in nine days from today.

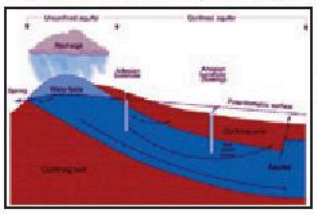
Ahead of the official unveil, the first test mule of Jawa's upcoming 300 motorcycle has been spied on road and it does keep the retro body very much intact, under all that camouflage. The retro-styling looks very much in-line with the classic Jawas. Small details like the chain case, rear suspension cover and the single-round headlight are all retro and bring the vintage feel to the otherwise modern bike. The fuel tank also appears to be large, which should make for an respectable touring range. The single-cylinder engine is the same as the one unveiled in images earlier this year and fits rather well.

Jawa brand is owned by Classic Legends Private Limited which is owned by Mahindra Group. The company is eyeing the premium motorcycle market with Jawa brand, which will be sold alongside Mahindra Mojo. Prices are expected to be in the vicinity of Rs.1.5-Rs. 1.75 lakh (ex-showroom).

WORD OF THE DAY

Superjacent

Pronunciation: soo-per-JAY-sunt



Meaning: Lying above or upon : overlying.
Origin: Many are probably familiar with adjacent, and if one can guess that it's a relative of superjacent, then they are right. Both derive from the Latin verb 'jacēre', meaning "to lie." Adjacent, which is both the more popular and the earlier word (it first appeared in print in the 15th century, while superjacent turned up in the late 16th century), comes from jacēre and the prefix ad-, meaning "near." Superjacent, on the other hand, was formed by combining jacēre with the prefix super-, meaning "over," "above," or "on top of." In case you were wondering, jacēre descendants are also available for other possible configurations: subjacent means "lying below," and circumjacent means "lying near on all sides" or "surrounding."
Example: Village streets threaded around the hillside, eternally watched over by the superjacent castle.

THE ODD WORD

Thrasonical

Relating to or characteristic of Thraso : bragging or boastful.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Pie in the sky

Meaning: Used to portray or refer to something that is lovely to consider however is probably not going to happen; a promise of paradise while enduring suffering in life.

Origin: This phrase was coined by the Swedish-American activist, Joe Hill in 1911 when criticising the Salvation Army's philosophy especially their concentration on saving the souls of the hungry rather than feeding them. He used it in one of his songs while leading a radical labour organisation. The expression was later taken up during the Second World War as it was used to describe elusive happiness in the face of so much death. A Californian newspaper in its November 1939 issue described Washington's promise to the public about eating solely from war orders as "eating pie from the sky." Over the years, it has evolved to include the way modern-day pastors treat their followers by teaching them that their reward would be in heaven and long-suffering on earth would pay off soon.
Example: My neighbour's political wish is a pie in the sky.
